PACIFIC COAST BANKING SCHOOL and WYOMING BANKERS ASSOCIATION 'RISE ABOVE THE REST' SCHOLARSHIP

To better educate our high-potential leaders in banking and to assist Wyoming banks in this challenging economic time, Pacific Coast Banking School partners with Wyoming Bankers Association (WBA) to offer a tuition scholarship for the 2009 Resident Session of Pacific Coast Banking School (PCBS).

THE PCBS PROGRAM

Since 1938, Pacific Coast Banking School, in partnership with the University of Washington Graduate School of Business, has offered a premier three year graduate-level leadership and financial management education program focused on the banking industry. The PCBS family includes over 10,000 bankers, with hundreds currently in key leadership roles in banks across the country. Premier instructors and cutting-edge curriculum offer practical answers to today's most critical banking dilemmas faced by bankers from all aspects of banking and all sizes of banks.

SCHOLARSHIP SESSION

Students enroll in a three year program, which includes a two-week resident session each August for three years. The 2009 session dates are August 23 – September 4 and is held on the University of Washington campus. Tuition before the scholarship is applied is $4,225, which includes a non-refundable registration fee of $175, single room accommodations, meals and classes, along with administrative and faculty support for intersession work.

CANDIDATE PRE-REQUISITES

The scholarship nominee must complete:

- 1 – The PCBS 2009 Session Application
- 2 – The PCBS/ WBA Scholarship Application

These forms must be submitted by May 15, 2009.

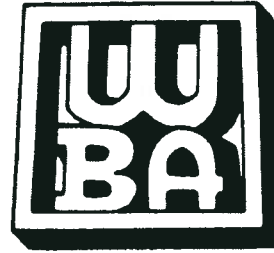

THE PROCESS

The scholarship amount is $2,200 and is applicable to the first-year PCBS tuition only. The deadline for submitting scholarship applications to the WBA is May 15, 2009. Five applicants randomly selected from those that meet the basic criteria will be forwarded to PCBS for final selection of the candidate, which will be completed by June 15, 2009.
