Program Content:

Being a notary public is a responsibility assumed by many financial institution employees. Unfortunately, most do not understand the personal liability assumed when agreeing to serve in this capacity. This two hour webinar is designed to provide notaries with the best practices for dealing with issues that are unique to the financial industry. This session is a way to make sure your team knows their responsibilities as well as basic laws, liability and reviews various notarial acts.

Covered Topics:

- Basic Notary Public laws
- The responsibilities of a Notary Public
- Conflicts of interest
- What happens when the law and the employer don't agree
- The different types of notarial acts
- Notarial liability and why notaries are sued

Presenter:

Terri D. Thomas, JD is the Director of the Kansas Bankers Association Legal Department, which specializes in providing compliance and legal assistance to Kansas banks.

Terri has worked with financial institutions for thirty years in various capacities. Most notably, she served for fourteen years as in-house legal counsel and trust officer for Bank of America and its Kansas predecessors. She has also served as a trust department manager and branch manager.

Receiving her Bachelor of Arts degree from Kansas State University in 1985, Terri continued her education at Washburn University School of Law and obtained her Juris Doctor in 1988. Presently, she serves as an Adjunct Professor at Washburn University School of Law in Topeka, Kansas, and is a frequent seminar presenter for financial associations in the Midwest.
