

WBA Associate Membership:

If building strong relationships with financial institutions in Wyoming would be beneficial to your business, or if you need to stay abreast of changes, activities and attitudes of the financial services industry in Wyoming, there is no better way than through Associate Membership with the Wyoming Bankers Association (WBA).

Looking to serve the needs of membership, the WBA looks for quality products and services to recommend. Associate members of the Wyoming Bankers Association have met the high standard of quality we expect, and are promoted to the WBA member institutions.

As a Wyoming Bankers Associate Member, you will be recognized on our website and in our Montana/Wyoming Directory of Financial Institutions. We encourage our members to use the services of our Associate Members and provide them with your company and contact information.

The Wyoming Bankers Association is the premier state trade association representing commercial banks and thrifts. The association focuses on the needs of our diverse membership and their banking customers to promote their success. Serving 97 percent of Wyoming banks and thrifts, the WBA provides its members with assistance in compliance, government relations, communications, marketing, education, and more.

With an Associate Membership in the Wyoming Bankers Association, you will gain numerous benefits that will aid in the success of your organization.

Free Member Bank CEO Labels

This list, available upon request, includes the names and addresses of our member bank CEOs and is valued at $100.

The Wyoming Banker

You will receive the WBA's monthly newsletter via email. It contains the latest information on the local and national banking community, as well as issues, events, and opportunities for our members.

Advertising in the Newsletter

As an Associate Member you will receive complimentary advertising in our monthly newsletter.

Legislative Bill Summary

Published weekly during the state legislature session, the Legislative Bill Summary quickly informs members regarding issues at the forefront of the legislative debate. The summary is available upon request.

Directory of Financial Institutions (Discounts on directory orders)

Associate Members receive a free listing in the Associate Member Section of the Montana/Wyoming Directory of Financial Institutions, a comprehensive listing of every deposit-taking institution in Wyoming, including information of banks, thrifts and credit unions. State and federal regulatory agencies, trade associations, and correspondent banks are also listed. Membership dues must be received by 12/15 to be included in the following year MT/WY Financial Directory.

Website Links

Associate Members receive a free link to their company's website on the WBA's homepage, www.wyomingbankers.com.

Available Only to You:

To help you develop and establish your relationships with Wyoming banks and thrifts, Associate Members receive exciting opportunities, available only to them.

Directory of Financial Institutions

Associate Members receive reduced rates as members on advertising in the Wyoming Directory of Financial Institutions Yellow Pages. The directory reaches hundreds of bank decision-makers each year. The directory is published annually and used daily by banking executives, business leaders, accountants, attorneys and more.

First Opportunities for Visibility & Sponsorship

Associate Members will receive first notice for sponsorship and exhibit opportunities offered by the Wyoming Bankers Association, the opportunity to receive the best exhibit locations during the WBA's Annual Convention, and be able to tailor your sponsorship and exhibits to best attract financial industry decision-makers. Many of WBA's events are open to bank members and Associate members only.

Registration and Exhibit Fee Discounts

Associate Members receive marked discounts on all seminars, conferences, and exhibit opportunities sponsored by the WBA.
